The Earth Science Museum invites you to join in the journey and adventure of building a new science museum. Our mission involves inspiring all generations about the earth sciences, and you can help fulfill this mission by joining the EARTH SCIENCE INVESTIGATION TEAM.

The Earth Science Museum's Earth Science Investigative Team is exploring new frontiers in earth science education. Become a team member where your contributions will help educate Arizona students about the earth sciences through hands-on outreach programs; create an Earth Science Education Center; and build an innovative, world-class museum.

Please check your membership level. ESI Family $20 ESI Individual $10

Membership benefits: ♦ Monthly e-newsletter Earthquake ♦ Official team membership card
 ♦ Knowledge that your contribution is making a difference in earth science education
